FALL INSTRUCTIONAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL LEAGUE

Introduction: The USI Baseball Team and coaching staff will host the annual University of Southern Indiana Baseball Fall Instructional and Developmental League for high school aged players. This provides an opportunity to showcase and improve your skills in front of the USI baseball coaches and players. Players from Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois have competed in previous years. In the past three years four players from the Fall League have made the USI Baseball team.

2010 Schedule: Each team will play 2 games per week for 5 consecutive weeks. The first games will be scheduled for Sunday, September 12th. Games will be played under the lights (5 and 7:30) on Mon.—Thurs. as well as all day on Sunday. Due to commitments to other sports and considerable travel time, players will have the option to play only on Sundays (double headers).

Exposure: In addition to the 10 regularly scheduled games, there will be 2 all-star teams picked to play each other after the conclusion of the 5 weeks. A pro style workout will be conducted for the selections before the game, and other coaches (both JUCO and NCAA) will be invited to attend the event.

Games: Special rules govern the games.

1) Everyone on the team bats. We keep rosters small to allow for maximum participation. Every attempt will be made to rotate all players. No one will just sit the bench.

2) Games are seven innings or a two-hour time limit.

Instruction: Players will receive instruction during the games to all players. The USI coaching staff and players will give all instruction.

Equipment: Each player will be required to bring his own spikes, baseball pants, mitt, bat and hat. Helmets will be provided. Some catcher's gear and bats can be provided. Game shirts will be issued prior to the first game.

Rosters: Rosters are limited. We will have from eight to ten teams so register early. For transportation conveniences, players from respective high schools will be kept together on a team, especially where considerable travel is involved. IHSAA rules prohibit no more than five players from the same Indiana school can participate on the same team. Attempts will be made to balance rosters with position players and pitchers. Each participant will be expected to declare first and second choice positions. Fall League provides an excellent opportunity to learn new positions.

Fee: A $200.00 fee will be charged for each participant payable to: Tracy Archuleta Baseball Camps. The fee includes five weeks of games (along with possible participation in the all-star event), game shirt, and supplemental accident insurance (use your own first). No refunds will be made with the exception of a $10 refund to any players whose high school has 5 or more participants, and a $25 refund to any players whose high school has 10 or more participants.

Deadline: Wednesday, September 1st, 2010. You will be contacted shortly after the deadline to inform you what team you are on and when your first game will be. You will receive a schedule on the first day.

Showcase: The showcase camp will be held on August 21st or 22nd (Pick one or the other) for select 2011 and 2012 high school graduates. This showcase is geared for those who are interested in playing college baseball. Other college coaches will be contacted to attend the showcase. The cost for this showcase is $50 but if you are a 2010 Fall league participant the cost is $40.

Information: If you have questions, please contact USI Baseball Office at 812-465-1123 or cm Marx@usi.ed.
